

Evening

THURSDAY October 7, 1915

THE WORLD AND ITS PEOPLE IN REVIEW AS THEY PASS BEFORE THE EVER-PRESENT CAMERA MAN

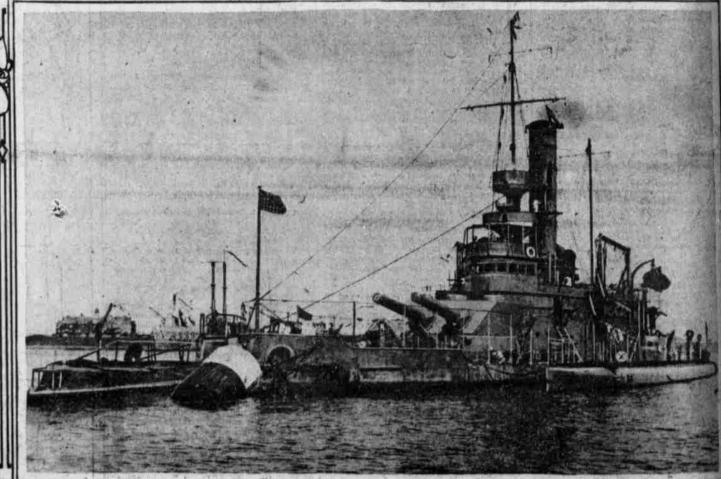

HE'S PROBABLY THE YOUNGEST DRUM MAJOR IN THE WORLD William Patton, Jr., of 2149 East Letterly street, is only three years old, but he can wield a baton like a veteran and there is nothing he likes better than to step out in front of the marching members of the Defense Fife and Drum Corps.

WHEN THE 6 O'CLOCK WHISTLE BLOWS AT THE SCHWAB PLANT IN SOUTH BETHLEHEM
5000 workmen, virtually all of them busy on the manufacture of munitions, are shown here issuing from one of the gates of the Bethlehem Steel Company's plant. Most of the men are of foreign birth, a noticeably large percentage of them being Greeks. On their efforts the success of the allied armies in Europe in a large part depends.

LARGE BRICK HOUSE BEING MOVED INTACT ACROSS A STREET

This unusual feat in house-moving was successfully attempted at 22d street and Hunting Park avenue.

AT THE SUBMARINE MANEUVERS AT NEWPORT, R. I.

A United States hoat of the G type is nestling close slongside its "mother," the monitor Ozark.

DELEGATES TO THE STATE FIREMEN'S CONVENTION BEFORE THEIR HEADQUARTERS AT SCOTTISH RITE HALL.

Most of the visitors, as c. 41 seen from the picture, are young men, representing virtually every prosperous town in the State. They have been holding exciting sessions all week over the election of the new president, Judge Bonniwell winning verterday.

GORKY'S SON WOUNDED AT FRONT Alex Z. Peschkoff, member of the French Foreign Legion, has been nursed back to health at the Ameri-